

Alexandria Gazette.

MONDAY EVENING, DEC. 18, 1905.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7:14 a. m. and sets at 4:49 p. m. High water at 12:30 a. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section partly cloudy tonight, Tuesday fair; light west to northwest winds.

Resignation Accepted.

At a congregational meeting in the Second Presbyterian Church after the morning service yesterday a letter was read from Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, pastor of the church, requesting the congregation to unite with him in a request to the Presbytery of the Chesapeake that his present relations be dissolved and that he be granted permission to enter another presbytery. Dr. Brooke in his letter stated that he was decided in his conviction that his duty compelled him to sever his connection with the Presbytery of the Chesapeake and the church in this city and his resignation is unconditional. The congregation decided to join with him in the request to the presbytery, which will meet in this city Friday morning next at 11 o'clock. In taking this action representatives of the congregation expressed their appreciation of the faithful services of Dr. Brooke during the six years he has been pastor of the church in this city. Dr. Brooke stated yesterday that he has declined the call to a church in Beverly, W. Va., and will accept one tendered him from the Presbyterian Church in Romney, W. Va. The church at that place has about 300 members. He will assume charge January 1, 1906. During Dr. Brooke's residence in Alexandria he has been exceedingly popular and he has made many friends and acquaintances who will regret his departure from our midst. He is at present the chaplain of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Samuel Dudley, colored, arrested by Officer Bell upon suspicion of robbing Ernest Crump's store, had his case continued. Robert Dewey, colored, arrested by Officer Mayhugh on suspicion of being a party to the above offense, was dismissed. Josiah Parker, colored, arrested by Officers Henderson and Beach on suspicion of being connected with the robbery, had his case continued.

Daisy Williams, colored, arrested by Officer Beach charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

James Diggs, colored, arrested by Officer Knight charged with carrying concealed weapons, was fined $25.

Violet Todd, arrested by Officer Young charged with stealing a ring from Lena Bloom, was dismissed. Pearl Hamilton, arrested by the same officer on the same charge, was fined $20.

William Harrison, arrested by Officer Young charged with being drunk and refusing to pay cab fare, was fined $1.

Plans for Grand Boulevard.

The Mount Vernon Avenue Association, which has a charter for the construction of a grand boulevard from Washington city to Mount Vernon as a memorial to General Washington, has planned a conference of the governors of all the States and territories, who are vice-presidents of the association, in Washington early next year in the interests of the plans. The fortunes of the project now seem to depend largely upon what action Congress takes in regard to bills recently introduced for the payment to the association of the sum of $120,000, with interest since 1790, which is the amount of a claim transferred to the association by the State of Virginia.

The question, of the construction of a suitable roadway in a more or less direct line from the south end of the new Highway bridge across the Potomac to the National cemetery at Arlington is being discussed in Alexandria city and county.

Fined Twenty Dollars.

A woman named Lena Bloom made complaint at the station house Saturday night that Pearl Hamilton and Viola Todd had stolen a diamond ring from her and that they had gone to Washington. At the instance of Lieutenant Smith the two women were arrested in that city and later Officer Young went to Washington and brought them to this city. They were arraigned before the Police Court this morning when the Todd woman was dismissed but Pearl Hamilton was fined $20.

Washington Sewage.

At the request of Mr. Gardner L. Boothe, Corporation Attorney for Alexandria, Hon. J. F. Rixey, with whom the former is conferring, expects to introduce a bill in the House of Representatives before the holidays to require that the outlet of the Washington sewage shall be located not less than two miles below this city instead of above this place, as at present. Mr. Rixey hopes to have an early hearing of the matter before the District of Columbia committee.

Fires.

The clubhouse (known as the bachelor quarters) at Fort Myer was destroyed by fire yesterday morning. It was with great difficulty that the fire was prevented from spreading to other buildings.

Fire last night destroyed the clubhouse of the High Island Canoe Club, on High Island in the Potomac, just above Little Falls. The building was valued at $1,500 and was uninsured.

Hampton Hounds.

The Cameron Run Hounds will meet at West Falls Church on Wednesday next and on Saturday at the Kennels. Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith will entertain the party at breakfast at Hampton Farm and the run will be from Clouds Mill. The following meets will be held from Springfield and Falls Church respectively Wednesday and Saturday of this week.

Yesterday.

The weather yesterday was comparatively mild and fair, but the melting snow and ice falling from trees and the eaves of houses rendered outdoor conditions uncomfortable. The city was quiet during the day and the number of people on the streets was limited. There was a falling off in church attendance, especially at night, by reason of the condition of the streets.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late William J. Summers took place from the residence, on King street, between Henry and Fayette, this afternoon and was attended by friends and acquaintances of the deceased. Members of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, attended in a body. The pallbearers were Messrs. P. F. Gorman, Oscar Tubmanland China, S. Taylor, of Lee Camp, and Elder William Campbell, and Deacons F. L. Slaymaker and Geo. E. Markell of the Second Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, Chaplain of Lee Camp, conducted the services.

Personal.

Mr. O. P. Angelo has returned from Waycross, Ga., where he has been located on government work for several months.

Mr. Wm. H. Wheatley is confined to his home on Prince street by sickness.

Miss Bena Stratton entertained a number of friends at a Welsh rare-bit Saturday evening.

Mrs. Annie E. Callahan was partially paralyzed at her home on Prince street yesterday.

To Provide Christmas Dinner.

Messrs. P. Pulman & Co., the popular grocers have determined to devote $25 for the purpose of providing Christmas dinners for ten deserving poor families, whose applications must be endorsed by those who look after the interests of the indigent. All applications must be handed in by Thursday night. This donation upon the part of this firm is in appreciation of the expansion of their business during the present year.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Joseph Bolden, a well-known colored man, died today at his home on West street.

A fight between two men took place in an upper King street saloon this morning. Neither belligerent was much hurt.

A marriage license was issued in Washington on Saturday to William I. Marsteller, of Manassas, and Eunice M. Utterback, of Centerville.

The axle of a car in a freight train of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad broke at Culpeper yesterday and caused some delay in the running of trains.

The running of trains on the electric railway was delayed yesterday morning by the derailment of a locomotive near the north approach to the Long bridge.

Mary, the infant daughter of Mr. Andrew Underwood, died at an early hour this morning at her parents' home on Prince street, between Fairfax and Lee.

Mrs. George A. Nowland, while visiting her daughter on Wilkes street today, in laughing, threw back her head and strained one of the muscles of her neck, from which she is suffering intense pain.

Captain Herbert Bryant, of this city, has recently sold the Capital Tractor Company, of Washington, 10,000 square feet of land in Georgetown, embracing a large frontage on 32d street, and giving the company an outlet to their inland property. It is understood to be the desire of the company to build a mammoth power plant adjacent to the car barn of the company on M street.

Dearborn & Son offer exceptional opportunities in gifts, having large assortments of best quality silk umbrellas, mounted watches, rings, lockets, necklaces and everything found in a modern jewelry store. Suggest a specialty.

Pope and Journalist in Audience.

Rome, Dec. 18.—The American journalist Frederick J. Haskin was received in private audience by the Pope this morning. He was presented by Monsignor Kennedy, Rector of the American College. Mr. Haskin is preparing a book on Rome under the new pontiff.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at E. S. Leal-beater & Sons' drug store.

The Season of Indigestion.

The season of indigestion is upon us. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for Indigestion and Dyspepsia will do everything for the stomach that an over-loaded or over-worked stomach cannot do for itself. Kodol digests what you eat—gives the stomach a rest—relieves sour stomach, belching, heart-burn, indigestion, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
